DEDICATION

The 1988 EAGLE is dedicated as tribute to a true friend of Calera High School W. M. "Sonny" Davis. For many years Mr. Davis has supported C.H.S. with his attendance and support for all school functions and activities. He serves as the C.H.S. football team chaplain and as a friend to all of the C.H.S. students. With grateful appreciation for his years of dedication to our school we dedicate THE EAGLE to this very special person.

HOMECOMING 1987

The 1987 homecoming week at Calera High School was a scene of bustling excitement. Classes decorated doors and floats, practiced skits, and most of all, expressed a lot of school spirit. The dress-up days, planned by the cheerleaders, included College Day, Mash Day, Fifties Day and Blue/Gold Day.

The winners of competition were as follows: (1) Seniors — overall winner for Sr. High and (2) 8th Grade — overall winners of the Jr. High.

The homecoming festivities ended with the traditional dance, held in the gymnasium after the game.

Jennifer

you have been a good friend this year, you kept me laughing in ELL, I'll never forget you cause I know you won't forget me.

Jennifer,

What can I say. I've known you since I was a little kid. You are one of the sweetest young ladies that I know. You really know how to make someone smile. I'm gonna miss you next year. I'm glad that we go to church together. I really enjoyed going on choir tour with you last year and I hope we'll have fun this year on tour also. Well this is it, but not the end. Keep in touch with me, cause I'll be back.

Get up
Freshmen!

Hello! How is life? Mine is ok.

Me and you have had our ups and downs, but it is great to know that we are, and will always be, very close friends. After all - you live across the street, and I know I can count on you for anything because you have always been there. Remember I'm always here if you need anything.

We have put up with each other since we were babies, and I hope we can say that when we get to be old folks. Thanks for everything! x

You are one of my best friends, and I hope our friendship grows more.
